FOR FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL USE ONLY. NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO INDIVIDUAL INVESTORS.

This material is for institutional use only and may not be distributed to any individual investor or other third-party. InspereX LLC ("InspereX") and its affiliates explicitly disclaim any responsibility for product suitability or suitability determinations related to individual investors. This information should not be regarded by recipients as a substitute for the exercise of their own independent judgment and the information provided herein is not an offer, solicitation or a recommendation to buy, sell or hold any security or investment strategy. There can be no assurance that the investments shown herein were or will be profitable and this material does not take into account any investor's particular investment objectives, financial situation, particular needs, strategies, tax status or time horizon. Further, any material contained herein should not be considered, construed, or followed as research material.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results. All investments carry a certain degree of risk and there is no assurance that an investment will provide positive performance over any time period. Different time periods and market conditions may result in significantly different outcomes. Any financial product sold prior to maturity may be worth more or less than the original amount invested. Depending upon the specific product offering, investment risks include, but are not limited to, market risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, call risk and liquidity risk. Additionally, unless otherwise specified in the respective offering documentation, the product(s) discussed herein are not FDIC insured, may lose value, and are not bank guaranteed.

These financial products are sold only by the offering documents and supplements of the respective issuer. The terms of each offering are subject to change or an offering may be cancelled, without advance notice from the issuer or InspereX. Such changes could include the early closure of an offering period, as well as a change to the corresponding price, yield and/or selling concession or reallowance. Indications of interest and orders submitted to InspereX shall not be executed until confirmed in writing by InspereX. If a financial product includes a Survivor's Option, please see the applicable offering document for the terms and conditions thereof. All transactions between your firm and InspereX shall be governed by the respective selling agreement between InspereX and your firm.

This material may not contain a complete discussion of investment terms or risks and you should only rely on the information contained in relevant prospectus and/or offering documentation prior to purchasing an investment product or making a recommendation to a customer. A copy of the relevant registration statement, terms sheet, pricing supplement, preliminary official statement (POS) and official statement (OS), financial reports and/or other offering information for registered securities and certain exempt securities may be found at the SEC's EDGAR database (<https://www.sec.gov/edgar.shtml>) or the MSRB's EMMA database (<https://emma.msrb.org/>).

The information contained herein does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy securities. Investment products described herein may not be offered for sale in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful or prohibited by the specific offering documentation.

Some investment products discussed herein may be considered complex investment products. Such products contain unique risks, terms, conditions and fees specific to each offering, and the overall performance of the product is dependent upon the performance of an underlying derivative financial instrument, formula or strategy. Return of principal is not guaranteed and is subject to credit risk of the issuer. Investments in complex products are subject to the risks of the underlying asset classes to which the product is linked, which include, but is not limited to, market risk, liquidity risk, call risk, income risk as well as other risks associated foreign, developing or emerging markets, such as currency, political and economic risks. Depending upon the particular complex product, participation in any underlying or linked product is subject to certain caps and restrictions. Any investment product with leverage associated may work for or against the investor. Investors should refer to the respective offering documents for specific details of product features before investing. Market-Linked Certificates of Deposit ("MLCDs") are subject credit risk of the issuer above FDIC insurance limits. Investors that sell complex products or MLCDs prior to maturity are subject to the risk of loss of principal, as there may not be an active secondary market. You should not purchase a complex investment product or make an investment recommendation to a customer until you have read the specific offering documentation and understand the specific investment terms and risks of such investment.

This information is subject to change without notice. InspereX does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of any information contained herein and provides no assurance that this information is, in fact, accurate. Data provided by third-party sources is believed to be reliable, and there is no representation or warranty as to the current accuracy of, or liability for, decisions made based on this material. Neither InspereX, its affiliates, nor its partners make any representations or guarantees as to the accuracy or completeness of data from third-party sources.
